Local residents are still experiencing disruption from the Manor House guests. This weekend they approached the guests at 1am to ask them to keep the noise down. Once again, they have approached the Parish Council for support and guidance. This was discussed, the following points were discussed;

- Ensure the neighbours keep a detailed log of dates/times
- Check if they have contacted the Police
- Suggest a recording of the incidents for their record
- Monitor the noise level
- Approach Luke Hall MP
- Possibly involve a local newspaper

Prior to the meeting the clerk contacted SGC Environmental Health for guidance and criteria to take this forward. This has been logged and waiting for a call back.
